

Program Highlights for LET MY PEOPLE THINK—April 2009

Air Date: Saturday/Sunday April 4/5, 2009

Message: “If the Foundations Are Being Destroyed”

Imagine living a life without any personal commitment—no marriage, no friendship, no meaningful work or purpose. Sounds pretty empty doesn't it? We all need foundations upon which to build our lives. Civilizations thrive when they're able to orient themselves around something with which they all agree. But what happens when the source of their unity is destroyed or replaced? This week, Ravi Zacharias provides some insight.

Air Date: Saturday/Sunday April 11/12 & 18/19, 2009

Message: “Ichabod: Where is the Glory?”

Preconceived opinions can hinder clear thinking and endanger one's ability to recognize truth. Jesus Christ was not recognized for who He was. Even after His Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem, prejudices kept people from recognizing the very One they were waiting for. In this week's message, we find how a refusal to recognize the revealed truth of God can have devastating effects.

Air Date: Saturday/Sunday April 25/26, 2009

Message: “Chopra's Manufactured Jesus”

He's been presented as a counter-cultural hippie, a rebellious zealot, a compassionate carpenter and the central figure of the world's most popular religion. But who is Jesus of Nazareth really? In his book, “The Third Jesus,” author Deepak Chopra uses Scripture to reveal the message of Jesus not as one of repentance and salvation through faith in Him, but one of god-consciousness that every person can achieve on their own. Is Chopra correct? Join us for a fascinating program as we investigate Chopra's claims about Jesus with Ravi Zacharias.
